PARENTS AND GUARDIANS CODE OF CONDUCT

(As extracted from the Athletics Albert Code of Conduct and Ethics Policy)

In addition to section 7 (above), parents and guardians will have additional responsibilities to:

- a) Encourage good sportsmanship by demonstrating positive support for all athletes, participants, coaches, and officials at every competition, practice or other youth event.
- b) Place the emotional and physical well being of the child ahead of a personal desire to win.
- c) Insist that each child participates in a safe and healthy environment.
- d) Require that the child's coach be trained in the responsibilities of being a youth sports coach and that the coach upholds the Coaches' Code of Conduct.
- e) Support coaches and officials working with the child, in order to encourage a positive and enjoyable experience for all.
- f) Demand a sport environment for the child that is free from drugs, tobacco and alcohol and will refrain from their use at all youth sports events.
- g) Make every effort to ensure that the sport is fun for the child.
- h) Ask the child to treat other athletes, participants, coaches, fans and officials with respect regardless of race, sex, creed or ability.
- i) Help the child enjoy the youth athletics experience by providing assistance when possible, such as being a respectful fan, assisting with coaching, or providing transportation.
- j) Make a commitment to volunteer and assist the sport system when asked or needed.

CANADIAN ANTI-DOPING PROGRAM (CADP)

Athletics Canada has adopted the 2009 Canadian Anti-Doping Program (CADP), which is the set of rules that govern doping control in Canada. Administered by the Canadian Centre for Ethics in Sport (CCES), the CADP applies to members of Athletics Canada and participants in Athletics Canada sanctioned activities. All members of Athletics Canada, whether in the role of athletes or athlete support personnel, are subject to the CADP. By signing below, I acknowledge that I am a member of Athletics Canada and I am aware that the CADP applies to me and I consent to its application to me. For further information, please visit the Athlete Zone on the CCES website <http://cces.ca/athletezone>
